WILCOX FUNERAL A LARGE ONE

REMAINS OF THE LATE LEADER
INTERRED IN THE KING STREET CEMETERY.

The remains of the late R. W. Wilcox were followed to the King street cemetery yesterday afternoon by a long procession of mourners. Services were held in the Catholic Cathedral at two o'clock, an immense crowd gathered to attend the services. The streets were lined with people who had gathered to watch the procession.

The procession started at 2:45 headed by a platoon of police. There was nothing spectacular about it and the line moved slowly along without music save for the notes of a cornet, snare and cello, and the sounds of a big and little drum. There were two or three hundred Hawaiian women marching and the hearse was drawn by a couple of hundred ponies. At the cemetery the government band met the procession and played funeral music while the remains were carried to the grave.
Bishop Libert conducted the final services. The crowd in and about the cemetery was an immense one. The order of procession was as follows, the titles of royalty being those given by those in charge of the funeral.

NATIONAL MILITIA LAW.

Col. Jones of the National Guard has received from the War Department copies of a militia law which the Territorial legislature is asked to enact. A similar law is sent to every state and territory, with a view to having the national guards all on the same basis.

The law does not differ materially from the one which the Hawaiian legislature recently enacted.

LYMAN-MACKAY.

Lyman to Doctor Katharine Mackay surprised Hilo people last week. The marriage took place at the coast and the bride and groom are expected here at any time. Dr. Mackay practiced here for a short time a few years ago.—

THE VOLCANO.

The volcano is reported to be more active than ever. The latest reports are from the Volcano House, where the view is said to be very fine. Tuesday night the light over the mountain showed up very brilliant. The fire of reflection has not been visible from Hilo for some days owing to unfavorable cloudiness. A party from the other side went up last Sunday and they report that the action in the crater was wonderful as ever was and well worth the trip to see.—Hilo Tribune.

KALAUOKALANI SATISFIED.

election," said Senator Kaluokalani.
President of the Home Rule party yesterday.

"I don't know about a contest," continued Kaluokalani. "It is still in the hands of the committee. I am satisfied though. The Home Rulers did good work. I got Maui, most of East Hawaii and nearly half of West Hawaii.
Then I got one man on Kauai and about half of Oahu. I am satisfied with the result."

tended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza.
It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yield-of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it cures that disease of all dangerous results.

It is especially prized by mothers because it contains nothing injurious and there is not the least danger in giving
